"Unclean spirits" of anger, fear and hurt can "possess" all of us. In our humble moment of reconciliation, we are able to cast out the "demons" of failure, hurt and inadequacy that have entombed us in bitterness and disappointment.

By his grace, God enables us to cast out the "demons" that isolate us, that mire us in fear and selfishness, that blind us to the love of God in our midst.

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life
February 2, 2012

A message from the Bishop ~

As we continue the celebration of the 125th Anniversary of our Diocese, we are called to remember and celebrate the men and women religious who been an incomparable blessing in our Diocese for more than 125 years.

This is a day set aside to honor and thank the men and women religious whose vocation answered a call to respond to the needs of people throughout the Diocese and to strengthen the faith of generation after generation in the Diocese of Syracuse. We have witnessed the blessings brought to us through the men and women religious whose vocation contributed to the building up of our Catholic School system. Ministry to the sick and infirm led to the building of hospitals throughout our Diocese.

On behalf of the Syracuse Diocese, Thank You!

Retrouaille—Rebuilding hurting marriages

March 2-4, 2012

This weekend experience helps couples find a new way of looking at themselves and one another. Retrouaille has helped marriages survive addictions, adultery, anger and indifference. Since 2006, The Good News Center has offered this program, which is led by couples who themselves have been through the program.

Retrouaille is NOT group therapy, and you will not be asked to share your personal life with anyone other than your spouse. The program focuses on teaching communication skills. Marriages are rebuilt and lives are changed. Overnight accommodations and meals included.
