"I am the living bread that came down from heaven . . . "

John 6: 51-58

Life itself should come with a warning label. In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus makes clear that our life's journey is not easy, that heartache, disappointment and injustice are part of every life. But three times he tells us not to be afraid, that despite the "warning labels," Christ calls us to embrace a vision of hope that is the opposite of fear: hope that matches our uncertainty of the unknown with the certainty of the love of God; hope that can only be found and embraced when we reach beyond our own fears to confront the fears and heal the hurts of others; hope that the Good Fridays of our lives will be transformed into Easter completeness.
